In that case, the latter Team will also be liable for a strict penalty, including but not limited to, deduction in the marks or may even extend to disqualification from the Competition.

10.4. Evaluation Criteria and Qualification for Oral Rounds

- A total of twenty (20) teams with the highest scores for Written Submissions will qualify for the oral rounds of the Competition. The Written Submission scores will be inclusive of all penalties laid down in rule (10.3.7). All Written Submissions emailed before the last date of Submission (with penalties) will be evaluated based on the criteria mentioned in Annexure A*

11. ORAL ROUNDS

11.1. General Provisions

- 11.1.1. The Competition shall consist of Preliminary Rounds and Advanced Rounds.
- 11.1.2. Each Team shall argue 4 (four) times in Preliminary Rounds – twice as Claimant and twice as Respondent. In case, a team does not appear for 10 minutes after the scheduled commencement of the round; the other Team shall make ex-parte submissions.
- 11.1.3. The Advanced Rounds shall, under normal circumstances, consist of three knock-out rounds – the Quarter-Finals, Semi-Finals and the Final. In case, a team does not appear for 10 minutes after the scheduled commencement of the round; the other Team shall proceed to the next round.

11.2. Fixtures

- 11.2.1. In the Preliminary Rounds, Seeding Match-up system shall be used to determine the fixtures.
- 11.2.2. In the Quarter-final and Semi-final rounds, the Power Match-Up system, with the help of scores, shall be used to determine the Matchups.
- 11.2.3. Determination of sides for Advanced Rounds shall be decided as per Rule 11.5.

11.3. Assessment Criteria

11.3.1. The scoring and tabulation for the Competition shall be based on a Round Points system. The Team with the higher number of Round Points wins the round.

11.3.2. Round point system for preliminary rounds

- Each preliminary round will be decided on a scale of 6 Round Points, with 3 Round Points allocated to the oral rounds, and 3 Round Points allocated to the Written Submission scores.
- Written Submissions of each Team will be marked by three judges with each Judge giving a score out of 100. Therefore, each Team's Written Submission will have three scores: the highest score, a middle score, and the lowest score.
- In each round, the highest score of the Claimant's Written Submission will be compared with the highest score of the Respondent's Written Submission; the middle score of the Claimant's Written Submission will be compared with the middle score of the Respondent's Written Submission and the lowest score of the Claimant's Written Submission will be compared with the lowest score of the Respondent's Written Submission. If scores being compared are the same, then each Team will be awarded 0.5 points for each comparison.
- For scoring higher in each of the above comparisons made, a team will get 1 Round Point. A total of 3 Round Points can be won for the Written Submissions in each round.

Illustration: In a round between Team 1 and Team 5, if Team 1 scores more than Team 5 in all the three comparisons, then Team 1 gets 3 Round points with Team 5 getting zero Round points. If Team 1 scores higher than Team 5 only in two comparisons, then Team 1 gets 2 Round Points, and Team 5 gets 1 Round Point.

- In the Oral Pleadings, each of the three judges' scores out of 200 for the two teams will be compared, and one round point will be awarded. A total of 3 Round Points can be won in the Oral Pleadings in each round.

Illustration: If Judge 1 in the round between Team 10 and Team 20 gives a higher number of points to Team 10– then Team 10 will get 1 Round Point. A similar comparison will be carried out for Judges 2 and 3.

11.3.3. For the Advanced Rounds, the Written Submission points will not be taken into consideration. Each Advanced Round will be judged by three (3) Judges, each of whom shall award a maximum of 2 Round Points. The Team with the higher total marks on a particular Judge's scoresheet will be the winner on that Judge's scoresheet. The winning Team on a particular judge's score sheet shall be awarded 2 Round Points for that Judge. In case of a tie between the two Teams, each Team shall be awarded 1 Round Point for the concerned Judge. Thus, every Advanced Round will have 6 Round Points allotted to the orals.

11.3.4. The round winner will be determined based on the Total Round Points (out of 24). In case of a tie, the following criteria shall be used to decide the round winner

- Teams tied on the Total Round Points shall be separated based on the win-loss record in the Preliminary Rounds.
- If the round points and the win-loss record is identical, the cumulative scores awarded for the oral rounds shall be used to break the tie.
- If the teams have the same cumulative points, the same number of wins, and also the same cumulative oral rounds marks, then the Team with the higher net Written Submission score, i.e., the score of the Written Submissions after deducting penalties, shall be ranked higher.

11.4. Top two (2) teams in each of the four groups in the seeding matchup will qualify for the Advanced Rounds of the Competition. The fixtures for the Advanced Rounds shall be determined as per the rule mentioned in 11.2.2.

11.5. Determination of sides in the Advanced Rounds

If two teams in the Advanced Rounds have earlier argued against one another in the Preliminary Rounds, they will argue for the opposite party in the Advanced Round. If they did not argue against one another in the Preliminary Rounds, the determination would be by draw of lots. If two teams in the Advanced Rounds have in the preceding rounds argued in favour of one party, they will argue for the opposition party in the subsequent Advanced Round. If both teams argued for the same side in such preceding round, the decision would be determined by a draw of lots.

11.6. Time allocation, rebuttals, and sur-rebuttals

11.6.1. Each Preliminary Round shall, subject to the discretion of the Judges, consist of sixty (60) minutes of argument, which shall be presented in English. The Claimant and the Respondent shall be allotted thirty (30) minutes each, subject to the discretion of the Judges. Only two members from each Team shall make oral presentations in each round.

11.6.2. Each Team may allocate its thirty (30) minutes between the two speakers and the rebuttal/sur-rebuttal at their discretion. Each Speaker must be allocated a minimum of ten minutes (10), not including the time for rebuttal/sur-rebuttal.

- 11.6.3. In the Advanced Rounds, the total time permitted to each Team for presenting arguments may be extended to forty-five (45) minutes at the discretion of the judges, with corresponding changes in the minimum time prescribed for each Speaker. Each Speaker must be allocated a minimum of eighteen minutes (18), not including the time for rebuttal/sur-rebuttal.
- 11.7. A bench of three judges shall judge each Preliminary Round. The Advanced Rounds may be judged by a bench of three or more judges.
- 11.8. Oral Rounds will be evaluated based on the criteria mentioned in Annexure B.
- 11.9. The Dress Code for Oral Rounds shall be western formals.

12. AWARDS

The winner of the Final Round will be declared the “Winning Team”, while the losing finalists will be declared the “Runners-Up”. The Team with the highest total Written Submission score will be awarded the “Best Written Submission” award. The “Best Oralist” award shall be determined based on the cumulative points secured by a speaker in the Preliminary Rounds. To be eligible for the “Best Oralist Award”, a speaker must have argued in at least once per side in the Preliminary Rounds, at least once as Claimant and at least once as Respondent.

- The Winning Team (Best Team Award): INR 1,05,000 as prize money and three internship slots at Bose & Mitra & Co.
